WHEN IN DOUBT

Rabbi Maurice N. Eisendrath

For human beings, whether as individuals or as a corporate society, to take the life of a fellow human being is, in our opinion, to transgress the Sixth Commandment; and therefore we have ever been opposed to capital punishment; but even under our laws which in so many places still sanction this form of punishment, it must be admitted that to take a human life where there exists even the very slightest doubt as to the victim's guilt were fiendish savagery, to say the very least.

Such a case is before us at the present moment. Abraham Steinberg is sentenced to hang on July 14th. for the alleged murder of his nephew, Samuel Goldberg, and although his case has twice been tried by jury and his appeal has been heard by both the Supreme Courts of the Province and the Dominion, still doubt lingers in the minds of many as to his guilt. Nought but the very flimsiest of circumstantial evidence was educed by the prosecution wherewith to send this man to his death.

For our part, it is, of course, impossible to know of a surety whether Steinberg is innocent or guilty—only he and God are certain of that; but of this we are convinced: the evidence placed before the court was in no wise sufficient to despatch any human soul to the gallows. Nor do we make this statement because this harried spirit is a fellow Jew. Should he have been proved guilty, we should be the first to condemn him and to maintain that a just punishment (though not death) be meted out to him —but Jew or gentile matters not; from our careful examination of this case we are certain that enough doubt exists as to the guilt or innocence of this man to maintain that to put him to death were to commit nothing short of judicial murder.

One of the main bits of evidence by virtue of which—unless clemency be exercised by the Minister of Justice—Abraham Steinberg will march to the gallows on July 14th, was the testimony of a surprise witness who stated that Steinberg had confessed to him—an absolute stranger—the whole story of the murder in the few fleeting moments while they were walking together to their morning exercise at the Don Jail. All this despite the fact that Steinberg speaks a broken English only with the utmost difficulty, and that the most gruelling and "vigorous questioning and examination" could not force a confession from his lips. How pathetic that a man's life should hang upon such a fragile thread of evidence; particularly since this same witness was in jail at the time, had been involved during a former litigation in an attempt to obtain false evidence; and finally had been treated by a prominent physician who was prepared to swear that this star witness for the Crown was an "emotional" person subject to beliefs that he was attacked or pursued, and had even been a patient in a psychiatric hospital at least once prior to his appearance at the Steinberg trial. All this was discussed with the jury dismissed and the Crown succeeded in having every bit of this incriminating evidence against its witness ruled out as irrelevant to the case.

Is there not in this flagrant denial of common justice (regardless of what legalistic pilpul justified the exclusion of the defence testimony) sufficient cause for protesting against the infliction of the death penalty upon Abraham Steinberg? And is it not significant that the charges for which the Crown witness was in the Don Jail at the time were subsequently withdrawn? We have heard of such rewards being tendered state witnesses before. We fear that should Steinberg be put to death, the blood will be on our hands unless we do all that in us lies to petition the Minister of Justice to exert executive clemency.

When five supreme justices divide on a vote of three to two (Chief Justice Sir William Mulock and Hon. Justice Grant dissenting) surely there is the possibility of human error sufficient to fill our hearts with holy horror lest the two dissenters be nearer the truth than the three who voted to sustain the lower courts, the jury of one of which, we must recall, could reach no decision and both of which were not permitted to hear the defence's deprecation of almost the sole witness for the Crown.

There were other fragments of testimony, to be sure. The ownership of the gun from which the fatal shot was fired, the gray overcoat, etc.; all of which the defense seemed to refute with reasonable alibis, but whether Steinberg ever wore a gray overcoat or not; whether at one time when in the junk business he bought that particular gun or not—means nought to us; there is no direct evidence (except that preposterous story of the confession) wherewith to link Steinberg with the murder of Samuel Goldberg and no person with a single ounce of human kindness flowing in his veins but will implore the sane and sensible, just and fair dealing government of Ontario for mercy—if justice lay hidden still behind the veil of doubt.

For society to slay even a self-confessed and irrefutably proved murderer is bad enough, and causes the more humanitarian among us to shudder and to wonder why civilization has not yet learned that there is a nobler—yea, and perhaps even a safer—deterrent to crime than the primitive "eye for an eye, tooth for a tooth, and life for a life," the savage 'lex talionis'; but for the state to rob a man of the breath of life which God alone hath given when even a shadow of doubt exists in the minds of noted and reputable barristers, ministers and even the justices of our supreme courts,, to do this is to stain one's hands with blood, for which forgiveness can never be granted.

A petition to the Minister of Justice, the Hon. Hugh Guthrie, has been prepared by the counsel for the condemned man by Col. T. Herbert Lennox, K.C., M.P. We plead with all our readers to sign at once; yea, of their own accord, likewise to entreat this last person who stands between Abraham Steinberg and the gallows for the mercy demanded by God when erring and always fallible mortals are in doubt.

2,000 ATTEND DEDICATION OF NEW CENTRE

The dedication proceedings of the Hebrew Educational Institute, centre for the United Talmud Torahs of Montreal at the intersection of St. Joseph boulevard and Jeanne Mance street, Sunday, May 31, were attended by Jos. Cohen, K.C., M.L.A., Ald. Max Seigler, Elijah Silverstone, Lyon Cohen, Harry Wolofsky, president of the building council, Samuel Hart, Rev. Dr. H. Abramowitz, Allan Bronfman, Lionel Covienski, S. W. Jacobs, K.C., M.P., Bernard Levitt, president of United Talmud Torahs, Samuel Bronfman, Charles B. Fainer, Rabbi Hirsch Cohen, Leon D. Crestohl, Louis Salomon, H. M. Levinoff, A. Z. Cohen, Rabbi J. L. Zlotnik, Harry Bronfman, Harry Vechsler, B. M. Weiner. Laying of the cornerstone was performed by Lyon Cohen, honorary president who paid tribute to his father, the late Lazarus Cohen, the late Samuel Wener, Solomon Levinson, Elijah Silverstone, Bronfman brothers, B. Aaron, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hart, Jacob and Sol Kellert, Joseph and Zav Levinson, Sydney Levitt. The presence of such a large number of people bore testimony to the interest of Montreal Jewry in Talmud Torah, Dr. Abramowitz said. C. B. Fainer, chairman of the executive building fund council, welcomed the guests. Rabbi Hirsch Cohen gave the dedication prayer. Samuel Hart placed the documents in the cornerstone. H. M. Levinoff presented the trowel to Lyon Cohen. Elijah Silverstone, one of Montreal's outstanding Jewish philantropists, was given the honor of opening the doors of the institution. Close to 2,000 men, women and children jammed the hall where speeches and songs concluded the programme. Samuel Bronfman opened the Ark, Rabbi Wachtfogel placed the Memorial Book in the Ark, while the choir sang. Allan Bronfman, chairman, said the opening of a Hebrew Educational Institute has come into being to combat ugly prejudice by a comprehensive Hebrew study curriculum.

"It was essential and important that our children should know their proud traditions so that they might not succumb to bitter attacks made on their race. Days of youth are impressionable, and the need was great to provide headquarters that would hold dear associations to the graduates later in life. The Talmud Torah workers spared no effort throughout the years to get the money to build a school that would compare favorably to other educational centres. They have succeeded even beyond their dreams. It remains for us to shoulder part of the responsibility now in the moulding of character in our Jewish youth."

Rabbi J. L. Zlotnick, was appointed honorary educational director. Lyon Cohen, honorary president, presented loving cups to Harry Wolofsky, chairman of the building fund council; C. B. Fainer, chairman of the executive; Ald. Max Seigler, campaign vice-chairman. Leon D. Crestohl presented a special loving cup to Mrs. C. B. Fainer, chairman of the women's committee. Others participating were: Samuel Hart, Horace Cohen, S. Levinson, sr., Rabbi Hirsch Cohen.

UNITED TALMUD TORAHS REPORT

B. Levitt, president of the United Talmud Torahs, points out in the 13th annual report of the institution that despite an increase in attendance, the receipts from school fees, amounting to $13,856, were down $600; subscriptions totalled $11,638.00, down $200; while the envelope campaign netted $4,736 as against $5,736. The deficit, Mr. Levitt points out, amounted to $6,125, which figure was reduced by a contribution of $4,000 from the building fund. The net deficit of $2,125, added to the deficit of $4,037 for 1929 and the previous accumulated deficit of $6,188, brings the total deficit, as at December 31, 1930, to $12,350.

Mr. Levitt said that there is a greater sympathy for Jewish education and evidence of interest and latent support in the voluntary undertaking of the educational survey by the Bnai Brith.

Rabbi H. Cohen said: "We have been forced to close the Talmud Torah Poale Zedek in Mile End. On the other hand the number of pupils and teachers in the other schools has been slightly increased. Although we are now in the midst of a trying economic crisis, we are now seeing the completion of a magnificent educational centre whose every stone and brick will proclaim that nothing will deter us from passing on our cultural treasures to our children," he declares.

FEDERATION OFFICERS ELECTED

A. H. Jassby was elected president of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies at a meeting of the board of trustees at headquarters on Bleury street. Allan Bronfman was elected chairman of the executive committee for the fourth consecutive year. Other officers include: David Kirsch, first vice-president; Samuel Hart, second vice-president; Dr. Simon Kirsch, honorary secretary and Martin Simon, honorary treasurer.

An unanimous vote of appreciation was expressed to the retiring president, J. Levinson, sr.

"Absolutely extraordinary!"

is the way our new idea of "re-fluffing" blankets is being received. Housewives in Toronto who have sent blankets are phoning and writing daily to compliment us on the genuine new appearance and feel of blankets done by our new process. They are first washed in soft water, then air-dried—then "re-fluffed" — then tied up with pretty colored silk ribbons ready to lay away for use next Fall. Phone and have us call for a trial pair — you may also wish to have your feather pillows and eiderdown comforters washed — or stop any one of our courteous driver-salesmen.

Among Toronto Jewish Women

Mrs. Jack Garrick, 18 Humewood Gardens; Mrs. A. Grossberg, 232 Heath Street West; and Mrs. Barnett E. Laxer, Glenwood Apartments, agree that one of the most outstanding women in the Toronto community is Mrs. Roy Frankfurter, of 36 Wells Street. Mrs. Frankfurter came to Toronto three and a half years ago from Winnipeg. Before that she lived in Toledo, Ohio, where she was born and educated. Before she was married she took an active interest in the affairs of the community in which she lived. She taught Sunday School in the Collingwood Avenue Temple, did a great deal of girls' club work and was president of the Junior Council in her city.

Mrs. Frankfurter's mother, Mrs. Louis Epstein, was one of the charter members of the Council of Jewish Women and a brother, David B. Epstein, a prominent Jewish lawyer in Toledo was in line for a judgeship when his untimely death at the age of 37 put an end to what promised to be a brilliant career. Mrs. A. J. Gould, her cousin, is editor of a Toledo paper. Mrs. George Frankfurter, Mrs. Roy Frankfurter's mother-in-law, was an active communal worker and belonged to one of the pioneer Jewish families of Winnipeg around whom the activities of the community centered. It was not long before the younger Mrs. Frankfurter's activities were noticed not only in Winnipeg but throughout the entire west. She was president of the Sisterhood of Shaarey Zedek, the Reform synagogue of Winnipeg; president of the Jewish Western Canada Orphanage, honorary scoutmaster—having been the means of organizing Jewish guide work in Winnipeg. She has been in Toronto, for little over three years, and is a peace worker for the Council of Jewish women through the Women's League of Nations Association and recently directed several plays put on by the Council to disseminate knowledge of the part women may play in the propagation of peace. Mrs. Frankfurter is also on the board of the Holy Blossom Synagogue and a co-convenor of the Big Sister movement and was for a time connected with the Jewish Children's Home. Her two children are Glen and Fanny. Since the death of her father, Mrs. Frankfurter's mother has been living with her.

The GAS Refrigerator

FOR healthful living all perishable foods must be chilled, especially in hot weather. It is also important for food to remain well below the danger point of 50 degrees.

The Automatic Gas Refrigerator is always cold because it operates on a principle that is thoroughly dependable. Even in the hottest weather you can go away for the week-end, and when you return the vegetables, meats and other perishables left in the ice box will be just as fresh as when you went away. There will also be plenty of ice cubes ready for cooling drinks and table use.

A tiny gas flame and a tiny flow of water are all that you need to operate the Gas Refrigerator. Because there are no "works" to get out of order or to make a noise, the Gas Refrigerator is absolutely silent.
